

Palestinian–German Educational Dialogue and Student Exchange

Dealing with Conflict: A Joint University Module

Partner Country: Palestine

- Al-Quds University
Faculty of Law and Al Quds
Human Rights Clinic
Dr. Munir Nuseibah
- An-Najah National University
Community Service Center
Mr. Bilal Salameh
- Arab American University
Jenin
Faculty of Arts and Sciences
Dr. Mufid A. Qassoum

Project responsibility in Germany:

- Neubrandenburg University
Department of Social Work
Prof. Dr. Steffi Kraehmer
Prof. Dr. Robert Northoff

Actions in 2016

- Two Palestinian-German summer schools: 24 German and Palestinian students participating in lecture and social meeting programs in Germany and in Palestine
- PAGED-team work I: Cooperation in writing, discussing and reviewing the summer school materials
- PAGED-team work II: Publishing the DAAD-project reader
- Project conference “Dealing with Conflicts” in Palestine
- Paged evaluation and brainstorm beyond 2016 meeting in Palestine

The project consists of three columns

- Dialogue and cooperation between Palestinian and German universities, network among the partners
- Student exchange as a contribution to advance the student qualifications in the partner countries
- Joint curriculum and study materials about conflict intervention, also useful for the civil society

Target group

- Female and male students at the partner institutions
- Professors and teaching staff at the partner institutions
- Palestinian and German society and other concerned groups

Main objectives of the project

- Educational dialogue and student exchange
- Networking
- Joint university module
- Promoting students’ intercultural skills in both countries